Congratulations to Sue Caul and Liz Ali for completing the Moonwalk in London and raising over £2,500, for vital breast cancer causes.

Whether you enjoy a Summer Fayre, entertainment, swapping plants or a cream tea, please give your support at these community events.

Our cover this month is by

Meeting Point  Founded in 1976 by the Anglican and Methodist churches in Olveston, near Bristol
Are you going to Olveston Fayre?!
Saturday 18th June, from 2-6pm.

Don’t miss a historic event! This year St Mary’s Church, Olveston and the Primary School are combining forces. The Fayre will be held in three linked sites: the vicarage garden and the school grounds with entrance gates at both, and there will also be exhibitions in the church with teas available there.

Bristol City’s midfield star Cole Skuse will open proceedings at 2pm. There will be all the usual attractions of stalls, sideshows and cream teas plus entertainment from the Brownies, Beavers, the school choir, the Tug of War teams and Beat the Goalie. In other words, something for everyone of all ages. The afternoon will be rounded off with a BBQ from 4.30 until 6.00pm.

A traditional brass band will play from 2-3pm and two more local bands will provide the music for the rest of the afternoon. The (almost) guaranteed warm and sunny weather will generate a thirst that can be slaked in the Pimms and beer tent.

The Grand Draw will take place at 4.30pm, with generous prizes donated by local businesses and individuals (1st Prize £100). The school have had a competition to provide the front cover of this month’s Meeting Point, and another picture is being used for the programmes and posters for the day.

All proceeds will be split equally between the school and the church.

Please do make it a date and enjoy some old-fashioned fun!
You don’t have to come for all of it, but we don’t mind if you do!

Any enquiries to Rod Williams on 612850.

Thank You
Thank you to everyone who attended Norman’s funeral service in February and for all the lovely letters and cards we received.
The donations in his memory amounted to £1703.36, of which £959.00 has gone to Southmead Hospital Intensive Care Unit and £744.36 to the Severn Area Rescue Association.
Both of the above organisations have asked us to pass on their most grateful thanks.

Fundraising for Hammer Out

Four former school friends from Marlwood School in South Gloucestershire, two of whom suffer a fear of heights, have raised several thousand pounds for locally-based brain tumour charity Hammer Out by undertaking a Crane Zip Wire challenge at Ashton Court estate.

Selena Power (formerly Selena Cook of Orchard Rise, Olveston) (39) who now lives in Easter Compton, Kate Wigmore (39) from Severn Beach and Sarah Dunn (39) and Sue Shaul (40) from Thornbury, were lifted by crane to around 105 feet before completing the daring 250 metre zipwire trip.

The friends have received donations and pledges of £2,195 for their achievement with money still coming in. Selena’s husband, Rob, was diagnosed with gliomatosis cerebri, a rare brain tumour for which there is no treatment or cure, in November 2007 at the age of 40.

"As a family, we were devastated when Rob was diagnosed. If we can help Hammer Out prevent another family going through the nightmare of seeing someone they love with a terminal illness, it will be well worth the challenge.” Selena says.

Anyone who would like to donate can visit www.justgiving.com/selena-power or by sending money directly to Hammer Out in Thornbury or via the website www.hammerout.co.uk

Old Down Street Party

Following the local tradition of using a good excuse to have a party, we checked that the last street party held in Old Down had been for the Queen’s Silver Jubilee in 1977. Thanks to Evelyn Teague, we were able to look back at the photos and the plan for the day, which gave us the idea to try and replicate the timetable.

Led by Jane Sheppard, her energetic drive was to ensure that this opportunity would allow neighbours to show their faces and become familiar again and to ignite the village hub again. This created a great focus for community spirit, drawing people together again as we met and planned the day.

The weather remained kind and the rain stayed away which allowed us to close the road and set up tables from one end of the road to the other. We had a great local turn out and suddenly Old Down once again became a hive of community activity.

We started with a treasure hunt in the orchard and dangling doughnuts for the excited children, a cake competition, games in the field where I must mention the tug of war…what a laugh, it all started out so seriously and quickly became such fun and I have never seen so many people all hanging onto a rope!!

Then, with Jane leading the singing, we all enjoyed the old songs until we stopped for the quiz…so with not only a warm thank you to Jane we must also give a big thanks for the beautiful commemorative mugs (that were donated by John and Elaine from Linela) which also had a lovely picture of the pump in Old Down. A lovely day had by all!

Olveston and District Royal British Legion Women’s Section

Various events will take place across the country, particularly on this weekend, which is being called The Great Poppy Party’.

The aim is to help raise £90 million in the Legion’s 90th Anniversary year to carry out vital welfare work for our armed forces and support the brave service personnel past and present. Gloucestershire as a whole hopes to raise £9k.

There will be tea and cake and a number of stalls. Entrance £2, children free.

Mrs. Gerrish's Guesthouse

It is 1958 and the summer season at Weston-Super-Mare is drawing to a close and, although the charabancs have returned most of the lobster-red holidaymakers back to their Midland homes, Mrs. Gerrish's Guesthouse is still full and displaying the ‘No Vacancies’ sign.

Apart from the residential guests like 97-year-old Mrs. Gimlet, whose relatives were rumoured to have caused the great potato famine of 1845, the short-term visitors to Mrs. Gerrish’s Guest House include the suave and debonair Mr. Thomas Terry, the intrepid Hurley family from West Bromwich who arrive shoe-horned into their motor cycle combination and the Great Mephysto, star of the Winter Gardens ‘Summertime Jamboree’.

Once again, true stories and personal experiences form the basis of the show, tales from front-line holiday-makers and veteran landladies of that Great British institution the Seaside Guest House. Upbeat, optimistic songs of the period re-create that age of innocence when we ‘Never had it so good’, Mrs. Gerrish ‘Never had it so full’ and most British teenagers just ‘Never had it’!

OLVESTON PARISH HALL – for one night only!
FRIDAY 17th JUNE 2011 at 7.30PM
TICKETS £9 - 01454 614662

Thank you
Thank you to everyone who has sent cards, messages of sympathy and charity donations following the sad passing away of Anne Williams.
Anne was very happy living in the parish of Olveston and Tockington and made many life-long friends. She will be missed.

Patrick, Gill and Miranda Williams
A warm welcome was extended to everyone attending the Parish Council’s Annual Parish Assembly, and especially to the outgoing Parish clerk Mrs Valerie Tutin who has had to reluctantly resign after twelve years, due to failing eyesight. During that time she has worked tirelessly to make sure the council’s business was accurately recorded, letters written and problems sorted. She has a genuine interest in the Parish and its parishioners, always available to give advice or answer parishioners’ complaints, and has been a pleasure to work with. The members of the council wish Valerie a very happy retirement.

Throughout the year we have had a full complement of 9 Councillors, with an average meeting attendance of 8 Councillors, and our District Councillor Matthew Riddle attended 7 of the meetings. To cover the possible cost of Parish Council elections in May, the precept has been raised by £3,000 this year, and our clerk’s salary is in line with the recommendations of ALCA.

The Parish Council is concerned about the potential closure of Thornbury Hospital. They understand that if the hospital is not financially viable the Primary Care Trust would not keep it open. After extensive discussion the council wondered if the site could be used for Extra Care Housing funded by South Gloucs Council and the Primary Care Trust. A related questionnaire was completed and returned to the Primary Care Trust and a letter expressing the council’s views has been sent to the Primary Care Trust and the North Bristol Trust.

During the year we invited 4 speakers to our meetings. In September Mrs Jane Sunnucks updated the council on her initiative for a monthly ‘Totally Locally’ event on Tockington Green, which has proved very popular, although Mrs Sunnucks has found that the district council have very strict rules requiring a trading licence and insurance cover.

In November, Rebecca Anthony from South Gloucs Council and Richard Lloyd of the local conservation group advised the council about the progress of an up-to-date appraisal of the Parish conservation area. So far a local survey has received 29 responses, Rebecca and Richard have also assessed our conservation area and will prepare a draft appraisal highlighting the issues, make comments and suggest new areas that might be included in the scheme for further discussion.

Our third speaker was Owen Jenkins from South Gloucs Council who talked about the possible construction of a reed bed at the Harnhill quarry site, which would filter out sludge from gully water and rural road sweeper waste. It was envisaged that about eight lorries per week would use the site, saving the district council a considerable amount of money. Continued on next page
Most recently, Reverend Roly Bain came to update the Parish Council on the poor state of the Church’s boundary wall and the general cost of maintaining the churchyard. The wall has been damaged over the years by large vehicles, and needs urgent attention. Unfortunately the Council has already set its precept for this year, and is actively looking to repair the war memorial steps that also need urgent attention, but will donate if possible. Roly also commented that the churchyard is filling with graves quicker than anticipated. It is the Parish Council’s duty to look for a new burial site in the not too distant future.

May Day 2011

David Bone

After the warmest April for centuries, May Day saw some very welcome overnight rain to freshen up the Shaw’s lovely garden for the lunchtime festivities.

A cocktail to start, the Manifesto quartet in medieval garb to sing for us (some others also in medieval gear, including a Knight of the Shires), then the crowning of Lottie Harries as May Queen by Roly Bain – extricated from the Curates’ Retreat (aka the bar) – the chance to acquire locally grown produce – all this was followed by some riotously under-rehearsed Morris Dancing, and some expertly managed Maypole dancing.

We all sat down in the marquee (much needed to shelter us from the blazing sun!) to a magnificent three-course lunch, all provided by ‘in-house’ catering, with the Harries family well to the fore, ably supported by Mesdames Atkey, Cole-Morgan, Fairhead, Savage, Shaw, Slade, and Wright; the sight of it all before we tucked in was enough to set the taste-buds glowing in anticipation.

Some more madrigals from Manifesto followed, including an attempt at a madrigal for the newly-wed royal couple.

Warmest thanks to David and Sandy Shaw for hosting such a marvellous occasion, and to their willing band of helpers, before, during and after the event, which, it is pleasing to record, raised £670 for St Mary’s.

I am trying to find someone who may interested in taking on the role of coordinating the CPRE Avonside Village of the Year competition for any/all of the villages and hamlets in Olveston Parish. Rod Williams has previously taken on the role for Olveston, but has too many other things going on this year.

The closing date is the 31st May. Thank you.

Olveston School on Safari

Every single child at Olveston CEVC Primary School, will go off timetable and on Safari at Wood Well Meadows Local Nature Reserve, Littleton-upon-Severn, Mon 13 June.

Thanks to a partnership between new landowner, Aust Parish Council, South Gloucestershire Council, which helps manage the site, and a grant from the Aggregates Levy Sustainability Fund, the children will learn about this important, species-rich meadow at first hand.

Miss Faye Bertham, Head Teacher said: “All 204 children will spend the day net-sweeping, doing bushcraft, making dens, drawing and identifying grassland flowers and insects, topped off with orienteering and a campfire. What a great day out as well as a fantastic learning opportunity.”

The project has also enabled a colourful journal to be produced to help local families get to know their special local site, and for teachers from St Helen’s, St Peter’s and Almondsbury Primary Schools to get together to provide digital lesson plans and other resources to use at Wood Well Meadows. The Meadow is on Field Lane, Littleton-upon-Severn. The roads in this area will be very busy at the start and end of the day – apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Police Report

A total of 14 crimes were reported to us for the month of April. Types of crimes were:-

An attempted burglary around the middle of April at Aust Services. However, nearly a week later, offenders managed to gain entry to the premises by smashing a window and made off with the cash boxes from the free-standing cash machines.

Milk was stolen from a property in Olveston. It appears that there were youths causing a few problems in the park that evening and also a group seen in the early hours of the morning which obviously could have been related.

Please be vigilant and if you see anything or anyone who you believe is acting in a suspicious manner, please call the police on the numbers below

Isolated outbuildings in Aust were broken into, where a Kawasaki mule was stolen. This is the second incident within 6 months. Two tractor tyres were stolen from Moor Lane, Tockington. Heating oil was stolen from a container at a property in Oldbury-on-Severn and damage was caused to a large wooden gate at a property in Hill.

Tockington Green is at the centre of the village and within easy walking distance for most. We also have the use of the Methodist Church inside if it rains, which it decided to do this Saturday but I’m sure you would all agree – it’s about time that we had some!!

For those of you interested in getting involved with swapping, selling or donating salad, fruit or vegetables from your gardens, please give me a ring, as at the moment we have a mix of grown and freshly-bought due to lack of seasonal availability. We are always open for people to grow a crop for the market alongside their own.

Totally Locally doesn’t make a profit as all the money goes back into buying or getting more stock. It is an event for the community and focuses on drawing people together within a charming atmosphere.

Review of “Carousel”
(The Parish Players)
by Barbie Davies

Of course, June Robbins stole the show, borne aloft by two fine fishermen and giving one of her wonderful smiles at the climax of “June is Bursting out all Over”! This gave that priceless extra dimension that only good village theatre can provide.

However, many other things were bursting out all over Tockington Village Hall; the audience who had a real dose of the “feel-good factor” and the large enthusiastic cast which consisted of a huge age range from 4 upwards. Energy and pace were the hall-marks of this production. Director Linda Evans ensured that the action was slick and inventive. Performers appeared from every corner of the hall which, together with ever-changing and interesting grouping, gave the impression of a much bigger space. The choreography too belied the tiny stage by its appropriateness and kaleidoscope of patterns.

As ever, the choice of show for this group was excellent, allowing the many skills and levels of experience to shine. Musical Director Chloe Allsopp-Jones and her fellow musicians gave crisp and very well-balanced support for the singing and dancing.

Mike Jones gave much dramatic intensity and reality to the part of Billy. Songs and dialogue were handled with real skill and emotional depth. Lynn Shelley was an excellent choice for wide-eyed Julie, and just needed more confidence in her truly sweet voice. Heather Collins-Jones gave a winning performance as Carrie, exuding much warmth and humour, and her Mr Snow (played by Phil Savage) was particularly amusing as the narrow-minded head of his household. The Snow Children were another show stealer! Not for them a quick “bit” part, but every one of them entered into the story and its spirit.

Cath Chappel was perfect as the feisty, big-hearted Nettie Fowler while Maedene Webb was a delightful, robust yet graceful Louise. Mark Collins’ Jigger Craigin brought a beautiful rich singing voice and most convincing touch of the sinister to the piece. In fact, every supporting member of the cast gave their all which gave a real sparkle to the whole performance.

Andy Black had, of course, added his inimitable sparkle with his beautifully conceived and typically practical set. Wonderful perspective scenery literally had harbour and fairground lights a-glitter and carefully chosen costumes also gave colour and mood and were extremely well-complemented by really good hairstyling and make-up.

There is a real sense of teamwork in the Parish Players, from the smooth stage-management to the lighting which respected all the visual aspects of the piece, while backstage, front of house and publicity is always most efficient. So if you have never been to a Parish Players production, get organised for next year to enjoy a heart-warming local night out.

An Easter Experience

On Wednesday 27th April, the whole of Year 6 went to St. Mary’s Church, Olveston to go and have the ‘Easter Experience.’ We all had to pair up with a friend and walk down to church.

Once we had reached the black, rusty gates of the church, we saw some old, rotting graves and black birds zooming in the sky. I walked past the graves and it was like they were saying, ‘the church is haunted!’

As I ran through the door to get away, I was greeted by a nice, friendly Vicar dressed in his black robes, who showed me into the church. Our first stop was the feast and the vicar gave us some bread and wine, obviously we didn’t have any wine, but we had grapes!

The next stop was the Garden of Gethsemane, which was really nice because you would write a word, which Jesus would have been feeling before the crucifixion, on a piece of paper. After that we went to the crucifixion where Kieran was Jesus and me, Caitlyn and Sarah were soldiers who nailed him to the cross. Then I went to Palm Sunday, where I had to write my name on a rock and place it under the cross (which had a red ribbon around it to represent Jesus’ blood.)

As the bell rang we had to gather at the front of the church to get Easter biscuits, then we went back to school. We learnt so much about the Easter story in a fun way!

A Royal Tea Party

On Thursday 28th April 2011, the children came to school dressed in red, white and blue. Excitement was in the air as they looked forward to a whole school royal tea party.

Tables were laid with table cloths and children arrived in their handmade crowns. Parents/carers made a host of decorated cakes for the special occasion. There was plenty to go around (at least two cakes each for children and parents!) We finished our celebrations with a ‘Strictly Come Dancing’ Olveston-style dancing competition.

Here are some special memories from Year 4 about the Royal Wedding…

‘My memory was when Prince William tried to put the ring on Kate’s finger and it did fit, but only just!’ Jessie S
'My Mum made me watch it because it is history, but Kate’s dress was beautiful and there were two kisses!' Claudia
'I watched the whole of the Royal Wedding. It was fabulous. I loved the dress and William’s uniform. All of it was brill!' Jessica E
'I was deep in conversation with my brother when suddenly my mum shouted, ‘sssshhhhhh!’ We all shouted back, ‘what?’ Then we realised we were going to see the kiss on the balcony. I can’t believe they kissed twice!' Anna P
'My favourite memory of the Royal Wedding would be the dress because it was simple and also William’s RAF suit. It was also funny when Will went bright red as he kissed Kate!' Millie
'My best memory of the Royal Wedding was when Princess Catherine got out of the car. She looked amazing!' Gemma F
What a special day for a lovely couple. We send our best wishes to the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge.

Olveston School Park and Stride

As part of our continued efforts to promote walking to school, we are introducing a ‘Park and Stride’ initiative. We know that leaving the car at home saves cash and calories, but for many of our families who live further away, there is no choice but to drive children to school.

However, with our ‘Park and Stride’ scheme we hope that many parents will park further away and walk the short distance to school, giving everyone some fresh air and exercise before the start of the school day (and saving a little money, reducing our carbon footprint and easing congestion!) Therefore, we would like to ask parents/carers to park in areas of the village that are beyond Olveston Stores between 8.30 – 9.15am and 3.10 – 3.45pm.

For this to work, we need to work in partnership with the community and seek approval. If you have an objection to our ‘Park and Stride’ scheme or have any ideas that could contribute to our Travel Plan we would like to hear from you. Please email: olvestonprimary.school@southglos.gov.uk or call 01454 613299.

Thank you for your continued support to the school and its work.

Olveston Back 2 Netball Club

We would like to thank the Parish Council for all their help in allowing us the use of the court in Tockington. You have made us all very happy as we can train on home ground every Thursday evening between 7pm-8.30pm.

Also a big thank you to the local businesses that supported our skittles fund-raising evening – Linela, Choccamocca, Cat Walk Bags, Olveston Stores, Roger Riggs, The White Hart and Garretts Gardens.

Reading Buddies

A couple of months ago, I was fortunate enough to catch the Richard Dimbleby Lecture on BBC1. My husband and I were both transfixed by the powerful speech delivered by children’s author Michael Morpurgo passionately promoting children’s rights. In a nutshell, his message was this: that all children regardless of factors, including parentage and social circumstances, should have the right to the love and attention that adults can give them. Show a child that you are interested in them and even the smallest positive thing that you do or say to them can have a positive lifelong effect. I look at my own children and know that what they want and benefit from most in life is the time and attention I can give them as individuals.

Seeing this on TV coincided with hearing about a new project helping primary school children in Bristol. ‘Ablaze’ was seeking volunteers who would be willing to become ‘Reading Buddies’ to children who either (a) do not speak English at home and therefore require extra support in progressing their reading and communication skills (b) children who receive very little support at home with regards to reading. There may not be a single book at home.

After a brief but very effective training session (and a CRB police check), volunteers can become a reading buddy with as little as one hour per week to spare (in my case 20 minutes each with 3 different children).

With the children I work with, it soon became apparent that helping them to progress with their school reading books would only be part of the picture. You can do anything with them that you think might be beneficial; chatting about how they are and what they have been doing, word games, quizzes, showing them some of your own favourite childhood books, reading to them instead of them to you etc. Even in the space of 5 or 6 sessions, it has been more than rewarding to see their trust in me grow, their increased confidence in communicating with me and their growing pride in their reading abilities etc.

If you may be interested in becoming a reading buddy or would like further information on Ablaze, please let me know and I will put you in touch with the project organisers.

You can contact me on 07752 942284 or lucyshrimpton@talktalk.net

Lucy Shrimpton
This month we celebrate Fathers’ Day, the day when we say thank you to our fathers, buy them a card, take time to reflect on what they mean to us. For some people it can be a sad and difficult time – maybe because our relationship with our father is not a positive one, maybe because our father is no longer alive or for numerous other reasons.

I wanted to reflect on the fact that as well as an earthly father we have God, our Heavenly Father. Why do we call God “Father”? This is a question that many ask – particularly in this day and age when fathers can get a bad press.

The most obvious reason we call Him “Father” is because that is what He wants to be called. Jesus used the word “Father” more than any other description or name for God. And Jesus taught us to address God in the same way – most famously in the way we pray to God: “Our Father who art in heaven . . . .”

What do you think of when you hear the word father? I think of sitting perched on the splinterly worktop in the garage watching my dad work. I think of the pungent smell of freshly cut wood, I think of his huge, strong hands. I think of the dolls house he built for my sixth birthday and the one he built, years later, for my daughter. The set of bedroom furniture he built for my fifteenth birthday, the numerous times he helped with moving, decorating and domestic repairs. I think of being rescued late at night when the last bus had gone, of being ferried around to various appointments. I think of endless discussions, debates, conversations, of being tickled until my sides hurt, of being hugged and comforted when things went wrong. When I speak of my father, I am speaking of a person who sadly is no longer alive but of a person who has profoundly affected my life.

It is astounding that God wants us to call him Father. The implications are staggering. Having God as our Father means that He is a living, personal being, and not an impersonal force. It means we can get to know Him. It means we can talk to Him and interact with Him. It means we can relate to Him on a personal and even an intimate basis. I might not know how to relate to an Almighty One, a Most High, a Holy One or the Great I Am, because I have not met anybody like that. I have no earthly frame of reference to do so. But relating to a father? That’s different. Father does not denote an abstract force, a metaphysical power, or a cosmic aura. It speaks of a person with a distinct personality and characteristics. I believe that God wants us to call Him “Father” because it is a personal term that refers to a personal being with whom we can personally relate.

“Father” is also the term that best describes God’s relationships - who He is in relationship to others. God relates to His Son, Jesus, and to us, His adopted
Father implies family interaction. It implies dependency, for a father is the source of life. It implies love and intimacy. It implies certain roles and responsibilities. A good father is committed to his family. He loves, protects, and provides. He lovingly guides, corrects, and teaches his children. A father also bequeaths an inheritance upon his children. “Father” is the most significant name of the God of the Bible. It is the name that sets Christianity apart from all the other religions of the world. Other religions invite us to worship their gods, allahs, creators, or metaphysical forces, but Christianity invites us to believe in a Son and to enter into an intimate family relationship with a loving Father.

Jesus, the Son of God, came so that we could meet His Father, be adopted into the family of God, and relate to the almighty God of the universe in an intimate, personal, concrete way as sons and daughters. “As God has said: ‘I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God and they will be my people.’ . . . ‘I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters’” (2 Corinthians 6:16, 18).

How well do you know the Father? Are you going ever deeper in your relationship with Him? Are you confidently and joyfully entering into the Father’s presence? Do you experience His love for you as His daughter or as His son? Maybe this month is the time to resolve to spend more time with your Father and get to know Him more and more.
